We urge Congress to enact a federal consumer privacy law that builds on state privacy protections in each area. Congress should build on privacy laws enacted by these five states to protect consumers nationwide.